The following shall serve as ex-officio members of the committee: The Clerk of the Supreme Court of Illinois; and an appropriate Judicial Management Information Services (JMIS) staff person, or other Administrative Office of Illinois Courts staff person, to be designated by the Administrative Office of Illinois Courts.

The overall purpose of the committee, along with the Judicial Conference of Illinois Automation and Technology Committee, is to serve as representatives from the users' standpoint for the development and implementation of e-business applications in the Illinois court system, including but not limited to e-filing. The committee shall develop general guidelines on the use of e-business in the trial courts, the Appellate Court, and before the Supreme Court of Illinois, including statewide standards, protocols, or procedures; analyze applicable rules and statutes and develop recommendations for any changes necessary for the use of e-business within the courts; and review and evaluate e-business applications and impact on the operation and workflow of the courts. The committee may also research and recommend response protocols to resolve security issues affecting e-business.

The Administrative Office of Illinois Courts and JMIS shall provide support to the committee as necessary. The committee shall report directly to the Court its findings and recommendations. Thereafter, the committee shall continue to meet periodically until discharged by the Court.

Effective immediately and until further order of the Court, Bruce R. Pfaff is Chairperson of the Special Supreme Court Committee on E-Business.

Order entered by the Court.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed the Seal of said Court this 8th day of June, 2011.
